The document contains a message about a notice regarding the cancellation of an event or activity that was scheduled to take place on 10th of the month. The notice is written in Urdu and includes a date of 20-05-2014 and a website address www.biserawalpindi.edu.pk. The text is a formal notification from an organization or institution, and it appears to be an official document. The document also includes a signature at the bottom, which suggests that it is a formal communication. The notice includes several points that need to be addressed, but the specific details are not clear from the text provided. Overall, the document is a serious and official communication, and it is intended to convey important information to the recipients.